

Back and BETTER than EVER!: Non-profit Roundtable

Strengthened and Expanded Non-profit Roundtable

Presenter: Trudy Smith, Executive Director of Executive Service Corps
Hot Topic: "It's Lonely at the Top."

When: October 15, 2008

Where: Chamber Office at 104 S. Estes Drive, Chapel Hill

What to Expect:

A Discussion about the Challenges of being an Executive Director and the Resources available to you in the Triangle, including Executive Coaching.

About the Presenter:

Trudy Smith, Executive Director of ESC since April 2006, recently earned an Advanced Certificate of Nonprofit Leadership from Duke University. She has served on several nonprofit boards, including the Atlanta Ballet Associates, and she was the Chair of the Triangle Day School Board of Trustees from 2004-2006. Trudy has a BA in history from Duke University, a Master's in Management from Georgia Tech and a Master's of Science in Personnel and Employee Relations from Georgia State University. For more information about Executive Service Corps visit them on the web at www.esctriangle.org.

Highlights:

If you or any of your employees have an interest in this timely and essential session about how to handle responsibilities of being an Executive Director, please RSVP back to Whitney Woodyard, Chamber Roundtable Liaison: wwoodyard@carolinachamber.org.

We only have room for 30 participants so reserve your seat today!

Agenda for Roundtable:

1:00 to 1:15 – Networking and Lunch (donated by Panera Bread)
1:15 to 1:45 - Formal Presentation by Trudy Smith;
1:45 to 2:00 - Question & Answer period
2:00 to 2:15 - Continued Question & Answer and/or Networking.

Purpose: It is all FREE except for your time.

Please RSVP to Whitney Woodyard (wwoodyard@carolinachamber.org) no later than October 10, 2008 with your name, the name of your company, and the names of any others who will attend with you, so we can give an accurate count to the presenter.

Upcoming Event: The next Non-profit Roundtable presenter is Dennis McKoy, CFO of The HR Companies of NC with a special topic of interest to all small businesses:
"Building Your Business During an Economic Downturn."

More information to come in the October Business Matters E-mail Newsletter.